the society espauses I am sure the Tammany society is in dead earnest in the efforts to give its support, not only to the Chicago ticket, but to the Chicago platform upon which the ficket stands (Applause)

I am not surprised that an organization of American Independence gives enthusiastic support to a platform which declares for commercial independence. Phere is nothing in that platform that menaces constitutional government. There is nothing in that platform that sasals the integrity or questions the honesty of the supreme court of the United States.

Our criticism of the supreme court is not one bit stronger than that contained in the platform opon which Abraham Lincoln was elected in 1860 and any stronger than what was said by Abraham Lincoln, both before and after his election. The various trusts of this country are collecting tributes from the people and when we protest against it they call us disturbers of the peace and anarchists. (Great cheere) If I amelected he will not come to Washington and on the ground that he elected me ask me to use the executive influence against that bill that passed the Senate which is attempting to protect the people from the government by lojunction. There is one great consolation I find in the opponents that have arrayed themselves against me, that not having their support in the campaign I do not have their domination after the campaign is over. A STATEMENT

Having read the article published in

Some startling facts are unearthed by the tree though the people of Bangor have been falked to enough on the subject to real/2 the situation. There is not power enough at the rumping station, a reservoir or stand pipe is a public necessity. There not cough ho e on hand to cover the city property. Every inch of serviceable bose was laid last night, and another thre, say in ward seven, would have to depend on a backet brigide.

> ILLUSTRATED LECTURE. Upon [Armenia, Turkey and Con-stantinople.

Rev. K. H. Basmajian, of Constantinople, an Armenian, delivered an interesting lecture upon Armenia, Turkey and tantinople last evening at the Y. M. C. Hall and well succeeded in entertaining and instructing several hundred people who composed the audience.

The speaker began with a general introduction concerning Armenia and the Turkish outrages by which thousands of Armenians were massacred. He spoke of the rule of the Turk and the attempted extermination of the Armenians and said that failure of European intervention in aid of Armenia was due to selfishness.

The European countries could send thousands of soldiers to conquer Madagascar, Abyesinia, Cuba but when it came to a matter of sympath; for Armenia they refused to act. referred feelingly to the aid given by the United States and said it was appreciated. The public work of Dr. Grace Kimball was spoken of and the speaker said that Bangor should be proud of her for her heroism and patriotism which deserved a crown. After a half hour talk Rev. Mr. Basmisjian began with the stereopticon

AMUSEMENTS.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin." Next Saurday night 'Uncle Tom's Cabin" will be given at the Opera House. The Wilmington, Del., Sunday Star says:

Stytson's company, under the management of Mr. L. W. Washburn, presented, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" to a large and appreciative audience at the Grand Opera Hotse last evening. The cast is a strong one. In the third arfale landing of the bost, "R. E. Lee," and the bappy darkies working on the levee and the child Eva's tarful/grecipitation into the river and her rescue by Tom was a life picture. Between the acts Sietson's uniformed band, which is mostly composed of colored men, enlivened the audience by discoursing southern pastimes. Previous to the performance the company gave a street parade.

The Bostonians.

The Bostonians.

By universal desire the Bostonians will make a special revival of the greatest of their successes, "lobin Hood," during their engagement here. That this dainty and refreshing opera will attract a large house goes without saying. "Robin Hood," with is wealth of humor, romance and melocy, seems to grow in popularity with each repetition and the mere announcement that the cast will include such an exceptional group of singers as Henry Clay Barnabee, William II. MacDocald, Jessie Bartlett Davis, Eugene Cowles, George Frothingham, Hilda Clark. Alice Neilson, Gracia Quive, William E. Philp, C. E. Landie, T. Kelly Cole, J. T. Merril), and reversed the lever and exclaimed in Charles R. Hiwley, May Van Dresser, a startled tone. My God, we are makes it easily the first musical event of the season.

Already there has been aroused more than usual interest over the engagement of the Bostonians and from the many inquirles at the box office there is reason to believe that the selection of "Robin Hood" for presentation lere has been wisely chosen.
